A Critical Choice

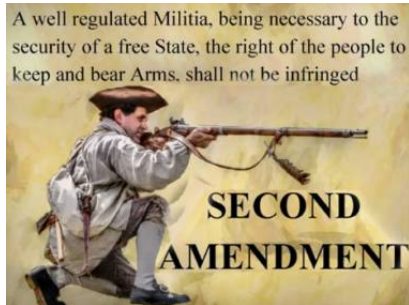

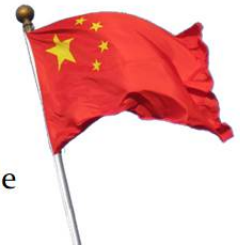

Brad Fregger

Anybody who voted for Biden is either a fool or a traitor. Never in our history has such an evil man been this close to becoming President of the United States; the true Manchurian candidate. And how is it possible that a Marxist socialist, committed to destroying our country, is this close to becoming Vice President, and then within months, probably becoming President?

If you're wondering what it would be like to live under a democrat (progressive) tyrannical regime, we've had some recent examples: California's Governor Newsom, New York's Andrew Cuomo; Illinois' J.B. Pritzker, and Michigan's Gretchen Whitmer. These tyrannical governors show us exactly how the democrats are determined to be our overlords, should Biden become president.

Progressives have been trying to focus the uninformed on the "danger" coming from Russia when the real danger is communist China. They turn your focus away from China because they are in league with the Chinese Communists, in league to create a worldwide government. Should the democrats win the presidency and the Senate, there would be only one thing standing in their way: 450 million guns.

Our founders knew that there was a good chance that a tyrannical government would ultimately try to take over America. These evil leaders would then destroy the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and freedom and liberty. To place a barrier to this potential evil, our founders made sure that the people would have a constitutional right to keep and bear arms. This is why the Second Amendment is a critical part of our Constitution.

Those that fight to annul the Second Amendment are either tyrants or fools. In addition, these wannabe tyrants and fools try to tell us that "weapons of war" are not protected by the Second Amendment. This is a lie. The signers of the Constitution expected the people to have weapons at least as powerful as the military. While tanks and nuclear bombs may be too much to expect, there's not a gun in the world that is not protected by the Second Amendment.

We have come to the time that the founders feared, a time when evil men and women are trying to take over America and turn it into a Marxist, socialist state on steroids. We have come to the time when we must prove that we are worthy of the freedom and liberty the Constitution and Bill of Rights assures us; the moment our founders feared has arrived.

As I write this, all is not lost; there seems to be a couple of opportunities for America to be saved with minimum bloodshed.

The electoral votes are approved by Congress on January 6th and there are rumors that enough electors have voted for Trump that he will win the election. This could be a wise move, it is a felony to certify a fraudulent election. The mainstream media is stating that Biden has won the Electoral College and that it's all over. Regardless, there still seems to be a ray of hope when the Electoral College votes are counted.

We are being told that the United States Supreme Court refused to hear the Texas law suit alleging that the states acted unconstitutionally. This is a gigantic misunderstanding. The Supreme Court refused to hear the Texas case based on standing; states cannot sue other states. However, the opportunity to revisit that case, once it met procedural standards, was implicit in the ruling.

In fact, every legal loss so far is based on procedural matters. Effectively very little of the evidence has yet to be presented in court.

It appears that the only viable alternatives are the Electoral College and the Supreme Court. If the Supreme Court ultimately refuses to hear the case, and the Electoral College chooses Biden, we still cannot allow a Biden/Harris presidency. Trump will be forced to the extreme action of enforcing his 2018 Executive Order.

Once foreign interference in the election is proven, he can implement the Executive Order and possibly arrest, for treason, everyone who supplied support of any kind in the attempt to change the results of the election through foreign interference.

At the same time and as a result of the massive fraud determined to have occurred, he can, and should, call the election null and void, and require that the election be redone in all 50 states with proper security measures in place to assure a fair and honest election.

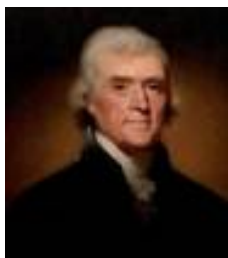

If this attempt fails, we, the people of the United States, who are determined not to turn our country over to a traitor beholden to the enemy and a committed Marxist, will have a critical decision to make. We will have to decide whether or not to fight for America.

Do we have the right to overthrow a tyrannical government?

The Declaration of Independence says that we not only have the right, but we also have the duty to do so:

“That whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends ... it is their (the peoples) right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security.”

A lady once asked Benjamin Franklin, “Well, Doctor, what have we got, a republic or monarchy?” “A republic,” he replied, “if you can keep it.”

Thomas Jefferson

“I hope that we shall crush in its birth the aristocracy of our moneyed corporations, which dare already to challenge our government to a trial of strength, and bid defiance to the laws of our country.”

Abraham Lincoln

“The money powers prey upon the nation in times of peace and conspire against it in times of adversity. ...The money powers of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working on the prejudices of the people, until the wealth is aggregated in the hands of a few, and the Republic is destroyed.”

Dwight Eisenhower

“In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist.”

Ronald Reagan

“Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed down to them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free.”

Sarah Burns, Professor of Political Science at the Rochester Institute of Technology

“The Founders set an incredible precedent when they declared that if a people suffer under oppressive rule, it is “their right, their duty, to throw off such government. ...

“This is the great experiment they initiated when they decided to declare independence. It is not one that they took on lightly. It required great sacrifice, great statesmanship, and a consensus among the people that their cause was just.”

Dan Crenshaw, Congressman (Texas)

“Well-intentioned liberalism always leads to Progressivism. There is no choice. Once that action is taken, the only thing left to run on is totalitarianism.”

If Biden wins the presidency, Crenshaw’s words will be realized.

Soon may come upon us the moment when we must choose. The choice is between freedom and tyranny.

Hundreds of thousands of brave men and women have died to assure our freedom over the past couple of centuries; are we going to allow the “enemy within” to take it away without a fight? I don’t think so.

Thank you.
